

The Lost Myth Of Mathos

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar - Chapter 3

1. Look at the sentence below. Why has a colon been used?

We were in a cavern and as my eyes adjusted I saw the place was cluttered with various objects: giant-sized furniture, tools, boxes and stacks of firewood.

2. Look at the sentence below. Why has a hyphen been used?

Squid-like tentacles curled and writhed all over it and it had two great red eyes.

3. Fill in the missing letters to complete the sentence below.

Mathos had been placed in a cage that was hanging from the c_ _ ling. He was worr_ _d about not being able to ach_ _ve what he had set out to do.

4. Complete the sentence below with an adverbial of place. Write your answer in the box.

_____, Mathos noticed what appeared to be an island.

5. Add a pair of brackets in the most suitable place to the sentence below.

The kraken a ferocious sea monster was feared by all the local fishermen.