

The Lost Myth Of Mathos Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar - Chapter 4

1. Look at the sentence below. What is the underlined phrase? Tick two.

A short while later, we landed in front of the stable.

An adverbial of time
An adverbial of place
A fronted adverbial
An adverb of manner
An adjective

2. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is in the past perfect tense.

Mathos stole Pegasus and rode him into the night sky.

3. Circle the correct homophones in the sentences below.

When he returned to the villa, Mathos <sup>heard/herd</sup> snoring. Perseus was asleep.

At first, Mathos didn't <sup>know/no</sup> <sup>weather/whether</sup> or not to wake him.

4. Complete the table by writing a suitable antonym (opposite) in the spaces below. One has been done for you.

Word	Antonym
enormous	tiny feeble faded slumped

5. Put a tick for each sentence to show whether it is written in the active or passive voice.

Sentence	Active	Passive
Mathos stole Perseus' armour.
Sariena lifted the helmet from Mathos' head.
Pegasus was ridden by the children.
The wing tip was soothed in a bucket of water.		