

The Lost Myth Of Mathos

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar - Chapter 5

1. Add 'able' or 'ible' to complete the underlined words in the passage below.

The journey on Pegasus was terr ; he was in consider pain because of the smoke coming from his wing. Knowing that Chrysaor was not very approach , Sariena told Mathos to wait outside.

2. Add adjectives and a prepositional phrase to the words below.

the scorpion

3. Add a suitable adverbial of place to complete the sentence below.

_____, the sea crashed about angrily.

4. Complete these sentences using which or that.

The scorpions, _____ were huge, scuttled around quickly.

Having a horse _____ could fly meant they could trick the scorpions.

Pegasus dipped his wing, _____ was burning, into the sea.

5. Rewrite the sentence below using a semi-colon to mark the boundary between the two clauses.

Sariena told me to wait outside I chose to disobey her.