

Open-Ended Questions

1. We're in my neighbour's house, poking around in a room that was probably meant to be out of bounds.

Write down one word that could be used in place of the phrase out of bounds.

2. Look at the paragraph beginning: Any common sense...

Why didn't Dan and Seth put the padlock down?

3. Look at the paragraph beginning: A woman's voice... to the paragraph ending: ...freshly baked cake.

Why did the woman think that Dan was wearing strange clothes?

4. Look at the paragraph beginning: "Oh, they must..." to the paragraph ending: ...on their ears.

Why do you think that Dan and Seth pretended that they were Walter and Rowland, the pig-keeper's cousin's boys?

5. Do you think that Seth and Dan have travelled forwards or backwards in time?

Give a reason for your answer.