

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Although Mr Penrose's house looked the same, things were noticeably/noticeibly different outside.

Things had gone horribly/horrably wrong.

The hour went by incredibly/incredably slowly.

2. Underline the examples of the present perfect tense in the sentence below.

"OK, but if we went back just a little in time and prevented that Dan from opening the door somehow, then we would never have tried the Time-Lock and we would never have gone time travelling."

3. Complete the sentence below by inserting a pair of commas.

The dials spun as did the room and the stormy vortex took them away.

4. Tick one box in each row to show how the modal verb affects the meaning of the sentence.

Sentence	Modal verb indicates certainty	Modal verb indicates possibility
“Dan, listen. I don’t know what we did to cause this but we could, perhaps, sort it out so our time travel never happened at all.”
“We just have to use our body weight to make sure / cannot open it.”
“And by ‘sorted’ you mean we won’t be stuck in some time-travelling, reality nightmare, where there are two Dans and two Seths?”
Dan and Seth might go time travelling again.

5. What is the name of the punctuation mark used between the two main clauses below?

Seth is very logical; Dan, on the other hand, has creative skills - such as storytelling.
